

Reproducible R code for Multigroup CFA
Self-Efficacy Scale for Academic Writing

```
#multigroup CFA with interdisciplinary sample
```

```
library(lavaan)
library(equaltestMI)
library(knitr)
library(semTools)
library(semPlot)
library(dplyr)
```

```
#creates labels for the TypeStudent category based on code of 1 or 2
```

```
master <- interdisciplinarydata
```

```
master$TypeStudent <- factor(master$TypeStudent, levels = c(1,2), labels = c("undergraduate", "graduate"))
```

```
#identify sample sizes for each group
table(master$TypeStudent)
```

```
#step 1 run the entire sample CFA without splitting the groups
```

```
SAWSESCFModel <- '
Relational.Reflective =~ meaning + improve + reflect + ideas + overall + wander + adapt + feedback
Creative.Identity =~ creativity + spark + voice + original + discipline Essentials =~ overcome + words + synthesize'
```

```
SAWSESCFModel.fit <- lavaan::cfa(SAWSESCFModel, estimator = "MLR", data = master, meanstructure = TRUE, std.lv = TRUE)
#meanstructure adds intercepts and means to the model
```

```
summary(SAWSESCFModel.fit, standardized = TRUE, rsquare = TRUE, fit.measure = TRUE)
```

```
modindices(SAWSESCFModel.fit, sort. = TRUE) #to explore
```

```
#Pretty Picture of overall model
```

```
semPaths(SAWSESCFModel.fit,
```

```
whatLabels = "std", layout = "tree")
```

```
#Equivalence testing equaltestMI package to assess measurement invariance
#The first 4 lines run the CFAs in the background and then all the equaltests between the groups.
```

```
MGSAWSES.model <- eqMI.main (model = SAWSESCFAModel, data = master,
    estimator = "MLR",
    group = "TypeStudent",
    meanstructure = TRUE,
    std.lv = TRUE,
    output = "both",
    equivalence.test = TRUE,
    adjRMSEA = TRUE,
    projection = TRUE,
    bootstrap = FALSE)
```

```
#first examine each group separately to see fit.
```

```
#undergradate -- this fits OK
```

```
summary(MGSAWSES.model$convention.sem$LavaanOut$fit.configural.g1, standardized = TRUE,
    rsquare = TRUE,
    fit.measure = TRUE)
```

```
#grad students fit less OK which is not a surprise but the next steps are supposed to help figure out why
```

```
summary(MGSAWSES.model$convention.sem$LavaanOut$fit.configural.g2,
    standardized = TRUE,
    rsquare = TRUE,
    fit.measure = TRUE)
```

```
#all the remaining steps below are additive which means as you run the next one the previous
one is also being run
```

#what you look for here from Configural onward is with each subsequent model test CFI drops by no more than .01

#configural invariance model – explores if factor structure the same in both groups

```
summary(MGSAWSES.model$convention.sem$LavaanOut$fit.combine.groups, standardized = TRUE,
        rsquare = TRUE,
        fit.measure = TRUE)
```

#Are the factor loadings the same? Do all the items have the same weight for each group.

#metric model

```
summary(MGSAWSES.model$convention.sem$LavaanOut$fit.metric, standardized = TRUE,
        rsquare = TRUE,
        fit.measure = TRUE)
```

#tests if the item intercepts are the same

#Scalar Model

```
summary(MGSAWSES.model$convention.sem$LavaanOut$fit.scalar, standardized = TRUE,
        rsquare = TRUE,
        fit.measure = TRUE)
```

#are the residuals the same. Does one group have more variability/variance than the other?

#strict error invariance is what is being tested here.

#does one group have more variability in their responses than the other

```
summary(MGSAWSES.model$convention.sem$LavaanOut$fit.strict.residuals, standardized = TRUE,
        rsquare = TRUE,
        fit.measure = TRUE)
```

#Can create a table of fit indices

```
table_fit <- matrix(NA, nrow = 7, ncol = 6) colnames(table_fit) = c("Model", "X2", "df", "CFI", "RMSEA", "SRMR") table_fit[1, ] <- c("Overall Model", round(fitmeasures(SAWSESCFModel.fit,
        c("chisq", "df", "cfi", "rmsea", "srmr")),3))
```

```
table_fit[2, ] <- c("Undergraduate Model", round(fitmeasures(MGSAWSES.model$convention.sem$LavaanOut$fit.configural.g1,
```

```

      c("chisq", "df", "cfi", "rmsea", "srmr")),3))
table_fit[3, ] <- c("Graduate Model", round(fitmeasures(MGSAWSES.model$convention.sem$LavaanOut$fit.configural.g2,
      c("chisq", "df", "cfi",
        "rmsea", "srmr")),3))

table_fit[4, ] <- c("Configural Model", round(fitmeasures(MGSAWSES.model$convention.sem$LavaanOut$fit.combine.groups,
      c("chisq", "df", "cfi",
        "rmsea", "srmr")),3))

table_fit[5, ] <- c("Metric Model", round(fitmeasures(MGSAWSES.model$convention.sem$LavaanOut$fit.metric,
      c("chisq", "df", "cfi",
        "rmsea", "srmr")),3))

table_fit[6, ] <- c("Scalar Model", round(fitmeasures(MGSAWSES.model$convention.sem$LavaanOut$fit.scalar,
      c("chisq", "df", "cfi", "rmsea", "srmr")),3))

table_fit[7, ] <- c("Strict Model", round(fitmeasures(MGSAWSES.model$convention.sem$LavaanOut$fit.strict.residuals,
      c("chisq", "df", "cfi", "rmsea", "srmr")),3))

kable(table_fit)

```